

A wide-angle, high-angle shot of a massive crowd of runners at the starting line of a marathon. The runners are densely packed, filling the frame from the foreground into the distance. They are wearing a variety of athletic attire, including tank tops, singlets, and shorts in colors like orange, blue, white, and green. Many runners have race bibs pinned to their chests, with some clearly showing the word 'PRAXIS' and the number '161'. The runners exhibit a range of expressions, from focused determination to slight fatigue. The background shows a paved road and some spectators lining the route. The overall scene conveys the scale and energy of a major endurance event.
