

A wide-angle, high-resolution photograph capturing a massive crowd of runners at the starting line of a marathon. The runners, of various ages and ethnicities, are densely packed, filling the frame from the foreground into the distance. Many are wearing athletic gear, including tank tops, singlets, and shorts, in a variety of colors like orange, blue, white, and green. Numerous race bibs are visible, some with names like 'PRAXIS' and 'ALUN'. The runners exhibit a range of expressions, from focused determination to slight fatigue. The background shows a paved road and some spectators lining the sides, though they are less distinct due to the depth of the crowd. The overall scene conveys the scale and energy of a major sporting event.
